

HUNGERFORD GO THROUGH

HUNGERFORD Town, the progressive Rothmans Hellenic League club, wrote a new chapter in their history on Saturday when they reached the semi-final of the Berks and Bucks Senior Cup. Their victims were Wokingham, who were beaten 2-0 on their own ground.

Hungerford, who have been beaten only once in 16 cup matches this season, must now wait for the semi-final draw of the County Cup which is being made either tonight (Tuesday) or Saturday.

While Wycombe were beating Rivets, Slough Town made hard work of overcoming another Hellenic League team, Thatcham Town. Thatcham reached the final last year before losing to Wycombe 4-0 in extra time. They were later awarded the trophy.

Also through to the last four are Chesham United who won 2-0 at Maidenhead, having taken three matches to overcome Windsor in the last round.

Blues' friendly

WYCOMBE Wanderers have arranged another friendly for tonight (Tuesday). They take on the Metropolitan Police at Loakes Park, kick off 7.30 p.m. The Police play in Division One South of the Southern League and beat Crawley 2-0 away from home on Saturday.

Wanderers have several other matches arranged for the near future. On Saturday they are at home to Dulwich Hamlet and the following Tuesday (Feb. 3) they meet British Colleges at Loakes Park in a friendly. On Saturday, Feb. 7, they are at home to Kingstonian in the Rothmans Isthmian League followed by another friendly, on Feb. 10, against Millwall Reserves.
